The alarm was States, stating that in consequence of the sudden and unexpected death of the Chief Magistrate, his inauguration should take place as soon as possible, and requesting him to state the place and hour at which the ceremony should be performed: Mr. Johnson at once replied that it would be agreeable to him to have the proceedings take place at his rooms in the Kirkwood House, as soon as arrangements could be perfected. Chief Justice Chased was informed of the fact, and repaired to the appointed place, in company with Secretary McCulloch, of the Treasury Depart-ment, Attorney-General Speed, F. P. Blair, Hon. Montgomery Blair, Senator Foote of Vermont, Ramsey of Missouri, Yates of Il-linois, Stuart of Nevada, Hale of New Hampshire, and Representative Farnsworth of Illinois. At 11 o'clock the oat of office was administered by the Chief Justice of the United States, in the usual sombre and impressive manner. Mr. Johnson received the kind expressions of the gentlemen by whom he was surrounded, and expressed a sense of the great responsibilities so suddenly devolved upon him, and made a brief speech, in which he said: "The duties of he office are mine; I will perform them The consequences are with God. Gentle men, I shall lean upon you. I feel that I shall need your support. I am deeply im-pressed with the solemnity of the occasion and the responsibilities of the office I am assuming."

Mr. Johnson appeared to be in remarkable good health, and has a high and realizng sense of the hopes that are centered upon him. His manner was solemn and dignified and his whole bearing produced a most gratifying impression upon those who participated in the ceremonies.

It is probable that during the day President Johnson will issue his first proclamation to the American people.

AT BOSTON. Boston, April 16.-The citizens of Boston, overwhelmed with grief at the awful calamity which has befallen our common country, spontaneously assembled and re-solved that an expression of their strong and fervent sympathy be immediately sent to the surviving members of their afflicted amilies, in view of the irreparable loss which they and their countrymen have sus-tained by this sad event; and also, that a message be sent to Andrew Johnson the Appropriate resolutions and adopted, and a committee Feonstitutional and the United States, or of thirteen citizens appointed to go to coln as President of the United States, or Washington to attend the funeral of the other confidence in his integrity, his patricotism and his manhood, and of their determination to give him their undivided and unfaltering support, imploring the blessings of God to guide him with the wisdom and Washington special says President Lincoln virtue which characterized his lamented predecessor.

Halifax, April 15.—Upon the amiounce-ment of President Lingoln's death the Par-liament of Nova Scotia adjourned, and the flags on the Government House, the Citadel the American Consulate, and the American vessels in port, were at half-mast. Deep sympathy prevails in the minds of the friends of the Union. The Hockade run-her Colonel Lamb was gaily decked with

HALIFAX, April 15.—The Governor had appointed to-day for giving assent to the bills passed, with the usual ceremonics, but upon receiving the news of President Lin-coln's murder, he sent the following mes-sage to the Council:

GOVERNMENT HOUSE, HALIPAX, N. S. F. Saturday, April 15th, 1865. MY DEAR SIR:-The very shocking intelligenee which has just reached me of the murder of President Lincoln by the hand of an assassin and my sense of the love of the ause of order, disturbed by the death of a man whom I have always regarded as emi-mently upright in his intentions, indisposes ne to undertake any public ceremonies, uch as I had contemplated in my inten-ed visit to the Legislative Council this day I beg, therefore, to notify you of the post-conement of that visit; and perhaps, men of all parties may feel that the suspension of further public business for the day, would be a mark or sympathy not unbecoming the Legislature to offer to one, which none could misconstrue. Believe me to be, my dear sir,

Most faithfully yours,
RICHARD GRAVES MCDONNEL. o Edwin Kinney, President of the Legislative Council. The citizens generally all unite in expressions of deepest sympathy for the nation's oss. The flags on the "Colonel Lamb" were ordered down by the naval authorities.

AT ST. LOUIS. St. Louis, April 15 .- The news of Presient Lincoln's death caused most profound orrow throughout the city and State. The preparations for festivities in honor of the recent victories is suspended, and a day for rejoicing turned into a day of gloom. Busness is entirely suspended. Even the iquor saloons are closed. All public buildings, and nearly all business houses and prirate residences are draped in mourning, lags displayed at half-mast, and approprie services are held. Many of the churches o-day are given up to mourning and the eepest depression. Men speak in whisers on the street, and the hush of a slek amber pervades everywhere. No such day has ever been experienced in the history of this city. Dispatches from the interior, and from Kansas, are burdened with sad-ness. Bells are tolling, minute guns firing, and people everywhere feeling the pro-

AT TORONTO. Toronto, C. W., April 15.—The news of the assassinations at Washington caused a ofound sensation here. The flags on Cusm House, American Consulate, the shiping in the harbor, and in the city were dislayed at half-mast. Stores and places of usiness owned by Americans are closed. The feeling of grief by the Canadian peo-ole is intense, and it is contemplated giving ome public expression.

AT AUBURN. AUBURN, N. Y., April 15.—The city is draped in mourning. All the business places are closed. The most intense grief nd indignation prevails among the peo-AT DETROIT.

DETROIT, Mich., April 15.—The announcement of the assassination of President Linoln has produced in this community the atmost grief, not unmingled with a feeling that stern justice must be served to all the rebels and sympathizers. At an early hour all places of business were closed. Public ildings, stores and many residences are draped in mourning. An immense meeting draped in mourning. An immense meeting of citizens was held in front of the City Hall. After prayer by Rev. Dr. Duffield, resolutions were adopted appropriate to the sad occasion. Gov. Craps issued a proclamation eulogistic of the illustrious dead, and says, all good and proper people should evote a time to fasting and sorrow, for the ad and unlooked for calamity. He only abstains from fixing the day, for that solemn observance, in expectation that the authorities at Washington will issue a proclamation fixing the time on which the nation can express, in a suitable manner, the sense of its lamentable beeavement. While we mourn over the dead, nd condole with the bereaved family, let us swear never to give up this contest until the hydra-headed monster of slavery and spotism is effectually destroyed and burled beyond resurrection. Let the free and loyal men of Michigan stand firm in this ur of their country's peril. The blood of our beloved martyr, and the death of our ble and heroic soldiers, will nerve us with ore than mortal energy in the accomlishment of this great work.
